

President's Message—SFC

Fellow SWA Members—

Here we are in August, already. The year is flying by! But there are still some good things to come in 2022. Currently in our gallery we have our annual Signature Member Show. This show is for our Signature Award members to strut their stuff. And there are some excellent paintings on display. Come and have a look! And don't forget to save your acceptance receipts and emails, and when you have accumulated 150 points be sure to submit your application for a Signature Award to me for approval by the SFC board. Then you can be in this show next year!

Following the Signature Member Show we have our September exhibit. Then, on September 24th and 25th, Yvette Head will be doing a workshop on abstract botanicals. Sign up for her workshop on our website, societyofwest-coartists.com. This is an in-person workshop and there are still slots available!

In October, artists from Skyline College will be showing their work. Rounding out the year will be our November/December exhibit.

We are still recruiting demo artists for September and October. If you know anyone who would be willing to give us a demo for those months, please email me at the address below. Our demo artist for November is Clark Mitchell.

Please stay healthy and safe. And make art a part of your life every day!

President's Message—SJVC

Happy August Members,

As I'm writing you the Central Valley has experienced eight days with temperatures over 100 degrees. Hey, it's summer and we're in Fresno, typical and expected.

I'd like thank our San Joaquin Valley Members for their participation in the SWA Annual Exhibition. The participants: Dean Dallin, Denise McGill, Deborah Pepin, Marilyn Torchin, and Nancy Tan. Congratulations to Denise McGill for the "Best of Show" Award. Also, we celebrate Deborah Pepin for "First Place" in the Pastel Division. The Annual Show was a terrific show and I'm proud we were participants.

The San Joaquin Valley will be taking August off to prepare and plan for our new year. At this time we have a show planned for September at Allard's Art Store. We've scheduled a reception for the artists on September 15th (2:00-4:00) at Allard's. Congratulations to Member Emily Ann Mealer for her first show, a one person show at the Fresno Arts Council Gallery. Our members are excited to help her celebrate this show.

Thank you all for your hard work and sharing your art with our community.
